Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The United States of America and the Republic of China (Taiwan) have been friends for many decades; and,

Whereas, South Dakota and the Republic of China (Taiwan) engage in significant amounts of mutually beneficial trade; and,

Whereas, The Republic of China (Taiwan) has distinguished itself in the free world with marked progress in the fields of economic trade and cultural exchange; and,

Whereas, I urge all our citizens to join in extending congratulations and best wishes to the Republic of China (Taiwan) as they celebrate the Ninety-Ninth National Day:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 10, 2010, as in South Dakota.

NATIONAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA (TAIWAN)

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
